Cesar Cedeno was the first to accomplish it, by driving in four runs against the Reds at Houston in a 10-1 win on August 2, 1972. Cedeno repeated his effort on August 9, 1976 when he drove in five runs in a 13-4 win at St. Louis. Bob Watson did it on June 24, 1977, but he took 11 innings. Watson drove in five of the Astros' six runs in a 6-5 win over San Francisco at Houston. Andujar Cedeno accomplished the feat on August 25, 1992 when the Astros lost to St. Louis 4-2 in 13 innings.

Houston has had only four home games postponed because of rain since its entrance into the National League in 1962. The first three were "rained out" and all occurred in the first season when games were played in Colt Stadium (April 23 vs. Philadelphia, June 13 vs. New York, and July 16 vs. Chicago.) The fourth game was a "rain in" and occurred on June 15 of 1976 when as much as 10 inches of rain fell in the Houston area virtually flooding the entire city.

Only members of the Houston Astros and the visiting Pittsburgh Pirates were able to make their way to the Astrodome. Umpires, fans and stadium personnel were unable to reach the ballpark.

- allowed just nine earned runs in his final 27 appearances (32.1IP), a 2.51 ERA during the stretch.

MAJOR LEAGUE CAREER

Saw his 1994 season shortened by a right arm injury, making just one start after July 9.

- limited opponents to a .246 batting average, 10th-lowest in the National League.
- walked two-or-fewer batters in 12 of his 19 starts.
- the Cubs scored just 13 runs in his six losses.
- on May 6 at Pittsburgh, he worked eight innings and earned the win in a 10-1 Cubs victory...it was his first win since July 28, 1993, versus Florida and his first as a starter since April 9, 1992, a string of 27 starts between victories.
- went 4-4 with a 2.94 ERA (29ER/88.2IP) in his final 14 starts...allowed just 31 hits in his final eight starts, covering 49.0 innings.
- underwent right elbow surgery on August 15 at Chicago's Northwestern Memorial Hospital...the surgery, performed by Dr. Michael Schafer, was similar in nature to the "Tommy John" operation in which a tendon graft was taken from Young's right forearm and weaved into his right elbow to reinforce the remaining ligament that was there and to create a new ligament for stability.
- due to the injured elbow, he was on the DL twice (July 10-26 and July 27-remainder of season).

Began the 1993 season 0-13, setting the National League record for consecutive losses at the start of the season.

- in the process, he extended his personal major league record losing streak to 27 games, breaking the old mark of 23 (set by the Boston Braves Cliff Curtis from June 13, 1910-May 22, 1911).
- snapped the skid on July 28, picking up the win in a 5-4 triumph over Florida...it was his first win since April 19, 1992, a string of 81 appearances.
- tossed eight shutout innings on September 5 at Chicago and left the game with a 1-0 lead...the Cubs rallied to win the game, 2-1.

- injured his left thumb in the September 5 game...the ulna collateral ligament in his thumb was repaired in a surgical procedure on September 16.
- had surgery on his right elbow on September 28 to remove a spur from the medial collateral ligament.

Began the 1992 season as a member of the Mets starting rotation.

- tossed his first big league complete game on April 9 at St. Louis, tossing a six-hitter in a 7-1 win.
- won in relief on April 19 at Montreal, his last win before the record streak.
- became the Mets closer on June 30, taking over for the injured John Franco...converted his first 12 save opportunities.
- hurled 23.2 scoreless frames from July 7-August 28.
- finished the season with 15 saves, tying Franco for the club lead.

Made his big league debut on August 5, 1991, after being recalled from Tidewater and tossed 2.1 innings against the Cubs.

- took the loss in his first major league start on August 29 at Atlanta, allowing two earned runs in 6.2 innings of a 2-0 defeat.
- recorded his first win on September 3 against the Astros, tossing seven innings in a 6-1 decision...also had his first hit in the game, a double.

In the club's 34-year history, only one Houston player has homered in his first major league at-bat. Reliever Jose Sosa connected off San Diego's Danny Frisela at the Astrodome on July 30, 1975. The game was Sosa's first major league appearance and he went on to pick up the only save of his career that night.

RULES OF INTEREST

PLAYER LIMITS: Forty from September 1 to opening day; Twenty-five from opening day to August 31, although teams have the option to carry 24 players instead of 25.

TRADING REGULATIONS: For assignment from one major league club to another, waivers are necessary ONLY beginning August 1st and ending on the day following the close of the championship season. At all other times, no waivers are necessary for trades at the major league level.

WAIVER PERIODS: End of season to 30th day of the season; 31st day of the season to July 31; August 1 to end of season. Players are available on waivers in reverse order of standings at the time waivers expire, if more than 30 days after start of season; otherwise in reverse order of standings at the close of previous season.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR A ROOKIE: Not more than 130 at-bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues during a previous season or seasons, nor more than 45 days on a major league roster during the 25-player limit (excluding time in military service).

NIGHT GAME: Any game that starts at 5 p.m. or later.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP: Highest batting average based on a minimum of 502 plate appearances, which include official times at bat, bases on balls, hit by pitch, sacrifice hits, sacrifice flies and times awarded first base due to interference or obstruction.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR PITCHING CHAMPIONSHIP: Lowest earned run average with a minimum of 162 innings pitched.

SAVE RULE: Credit a pitcher with a save when he meets all three of the following conditions: (1) He is the finishing pitcher in a game won by this club; and (2) He is not the winning pitcher; and (3) He qualified under one of the following conditions: (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning; or (b) He enters the game, regardless of the count, with the potential tying run either on base, or at bat, or on deck (that is, the potential tying run is either already on base or is one of the first two batsmen he faces); or (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings.

DETERMINING BATTING AVERAGE: Divide the number of hits by the number of at-bats.

DETERMINING AN EARNED RUN AVERAGE: Multiply the number of earned runs by nine; take the number and divide it by the number of innings pitched.

DETERMINING SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide the total bases of all safe hits by the total times at bat. (At-bats do not include walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher, or times awarded first base because of interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by the total of putouts, assists and errors.

CONSECUTIVE HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive hitting streak shall not be terminated if the plate appearance results in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. A sacrifice fly shall terminate the streak.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAKS: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if a player's plate appearances (one or more) result in a base on balls, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive game playing streak shall be extended if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

DETERMINING ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Divide hits plus total bases on balls plus hit-by-pitch by at-bats plus total bases on balls plus hit-by-pitch and sacrifice flies (for purposes of this percentage, ignore being awarded first base on interference or obstruction).

DETERMINING PERCENTAGE OF GAMES WON AND LOST: Divide the number of games won by the total games won and lost.

DETERMINING THE MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

HOUSTON TAKES 23 IN EXPANSION DRAFT

After being awarded a National League franchise in October of 1960, the first step toward putting a Houston team on the field took place on October 10, 1961 at the Netherland-Hilton Hotel in Cincinnati. On that date, General Manager Paul Richards and his skipper Harry Craft made the Houston selections in the expansion draft to stock the rosters of the league's two newest teams - the Houston Colt .45s and the New York Mets.

Craft called "tails" to win the coin flip and begin the drafting process. A total of 45 players were chosen, 23 by the expansion Colts. Houston's selections cost the club $1,850,000 as it picked four players at the $125,000 level, 16 for $75,000 and three more for $50,000.

In something of a reverse process in the selections, the players from the $75,000 level were chosen first. Craft selected infielder Eddie Bressoud from the San Francisco Giants. Once the Colts and Mets had selected 16 players from the $75,000 pool, the price dropped to $50,000. Houston made three more selections, New York two.

That set the stage for the premium player selections in the $125,000 category. New York won the coin toss and took pitcher Bob Miller. The Colts opted for infielder Joe Amalfitano, also from the San Francisco Giants.

Five of Craft's 23 draft picks never played for Houston, including first pick Bressoud, who was traded shortly after the draft for infielder Don Buddin. Number 13 pick Sam Jones was swapped for Bob Bruce and Manuel Montejó. Bruce became one of the franchise's best hurlers in the early years, while Montejó never made it to the majors. Also never appearing in a Houston uniform from the original draft list were Jesse Hickman, Paul Roof and Ed Olivares.

Rolaids Scoring Formula: saves = 3 points; relief wins = 2 points; relief losses = -2 points; blown saves = -2 points.

BLOWN SAVE DEFINITION: When a relief pitcher enters a game in a save situation and departs with the save situation no longer in effect because he has given up the lead, he is charged with a blown save. (If the save opportunity still exists when he leaves the game, he is not charged with a save opportunity. If the pitcher has not given up the lead when he leaves the game, though the save opportunity may no longer exist, he is not charged with a save opportunity.) This method has been a part of the Rolaids formula since 1988.

ASTRODOME FACTS

The Astrodome is the world's first all-weather, multi-purpose domed stadium, and opened its doors for the first time on April 9, 1965 when the Astros played host to the New York Yankees in an exhibition game.

- officially named the Harris County Domed Stadium, the Astrodome was financed by an $18 million general obligation bond which passed in January, 1961.
- the cost of the project, including off-site improvements, land acquisition, engineering fees, site roads and parking lot paving, was $31.6 million.
- the Astrodome and its adjoining facilities - the Astrohall and Astroarena - are operated by Astrodome USA.
- under a lease agreement with Harris County that extends with options to 2024, Astrodome USA pays an annual lease fee, plus all operating costs for the right to sub-lease the facilities

RENOVATIONS

A new artificial turf for baseball and an enlarged seating capacity are two of the highlights of a $60 million expansion project which was completed in the fall of 1989.

- the first stage of the renovation saw the concreting of the floor, which had been dirt since the stadium first opened in 1965.
- a new Monsanto "Magic Carpet" system provides separate turfs for football and baseball...the new turfs are housed in storage pits in center field and are rolled out on a cushion of air...each turf is marked for its sport and the new system substantially reduces the time needed for conversion of the stadium.
- the Astrodome is the first stadium in the country to have two separate playing surfaces at its disposal.
- after pioneering the idea of luxury suites in 1965 with Sky Boxes, 66 new Star★Columbia Suites have been added on the Club Level.

STADIUM COMPLEX COVERS 260 ACRES

The stadium structure covers nine-and-a-half acres of land, while the entire Astrodomain complex covers 260 acres.

- the outside diameter of the Astrodome structure is 710 feet...the stadium's floor is approximately 25 feet below normal ground level, affording minimum vertical travel by fans.

COMFORTABLE CUSHIONED, UPHOLSTERED SEATING

There are 51,000 cushioned, upholstered (seat and back) theatre seats in the Astrodome, along with approximately 4,000 pavilion seats (wooden back, upholstered seats).

- seating capacity for baseball is 54,370; for football, 63,001; for conventions, 68,000; and a maximum of 74,000 for boxing or similar events.
- seating can be arranged to accommodate any type of sports or meeting from rodeos to national political conventions.
- to convert from baseball to football seating, the stands holding 10,000 seats on the Field Level rotate on steel rails until they parallel the football sidelines.
- seating is arranged on six levels, allowing in effect for six front rows...all seats face the center of the playing area for baseball and football with the radius point of the stadium 20 feet behind second base on the baseball diamond.

DIAMOND VISION AND SCOREBOARD

The famous Astrodome scoreboard and home run spectacular were dismantled in September, 1988 to facilitate the 10,000-seat expansion program.

- two Diamond Vision screens, a large matrix board, two auxiliary matrix boards and a game-in-progress board replace the old system.
- each Diamond Vision is a 26 1/2 by 37 1/2-foot instant replay screen that brings field action up close for spectators...the screen's clear pictures are the product of 43,200 35mm CRTs (a home television is one CRT).
- the Diamond Vision brain is a state-of-the-art television production facility operated by a nine-person crew that includes technicians and cameramen.

- auxiliary matrix boards in left and right field display game information, messages, animation and out-of-town scores...the game-in-progress board is located behind home plate. These two systems became operational during the winter of 1988.
- a 26 by 34-foot matrix board was constructed in left field and began operation during the 1989 baseball season...this board is the primary source of messages, animations, and statistics...the scoreboard system, built by the Fairtron Corporation, is controlled by high-level personal computers and is operated by a three-man crew.
- the system is the largest computer-run matrix board in the nation.
- two manually operated, out-of-town scoreboards giving inning by inning scores of games in progress, were incorporated into the outfield wall in 1993.

RAMPS, ESCALATORS PROVIDE EASY ACCESS

Wide, low-pitched ramps and two sets of escalators provide easy access to seats...the entire stands can be emptied in nine minutes with a maximum crowd.

UNIQUE ROOF AND LIGHTING SYSTEM

The permanent roof of the Astrodome, which has a clear span of 642 feet (twice that of any previous structure), has a maximum height of 208 feet above the playing field, which would allow the construction of an 18-story building under the roof.

- the roof design consists of a steel lamella frame incorporating trussed beams arching upward to meet at the center, braced in a diamond pattern.
- the steel skeleton supports a roof containing 4,596 cast acrylic sheet skylights (7'2" by 3'4").
- the roof can withstand hurricane winds of 135 miles per hour and gusts up to 165.
- the field is illuminated to an average brightness of 265 footcandles by 800 floodlights...the total electric power consumed exceeds 18,000 KVA, more than that needed by a city of 9,000 population.

MORE THAN 6,000 TONS OF AIR CONDITIONING

The stadium is completely air-conditioned with 6,600 tons of cooling capacity during events.

- the system circulates 2.5 million cubic feet of air each minute.
- also every minute, 250,000 cubic feet of fresh air is drawn into the stadium, conditioned by electronic filters and activated charcoal odor removers, then distributed through the system...smoke and hot air are drawn out through the top of the roof.

Pacific Coast League—AAA

THE SEASON: The Toros capped an amazing second half with a 12-2 run over their final 14 games to capture the PCL second-half title by 11.5 games. Their 50-22 mark was the best of any club in either the first or second half, but the Toros finished their campaign with a three-games-to-one defeat against Colorado Springs in the first round of the playoffs. Tucson won the first game of the series before their pitching faltered as they lost the next three straight. Individual accolades included post-season All-Star status for second baseman Dave Hajek and starting pitcher Donne Wall, also named the circuit's MVP.

AT THE PLATE: Seven position players who began the season with Tucson went on to spend a portion of the 1995 campaign with the parent club. The list included Mike Brumley, John Cangelosi, Jerry Goff, Dave Hajek, Brian Hunter, Phil Nevin and Mike Simms, with Cangelosi, Simms and Hunter assuming key roles with the Astros during their stretch drive. Outfielder Bob Abreu, at 21 the youngest player for the Toros, led all professional players with 17 triples to go along with his .304 average and 75 RBI. Hajek placed fifth in the league with a .327 average and was second in hits (164), doubles (37) and runs (99). Hunter (.417; 25x60) and Chris Hatcher (.391; 18x46) each pieced together 14-game hitting streaks, and Hajek hit in 12 consecutive contests (.420; 21x50). Abreu hit safely in eight straight in June to raise his average above .300 for the remainder of the season. Outfielder Ken Ramos hit .654 (17x26) in nine games from 6/28-7/7 and finished the season with the club's second best average at .315.

ON THE MOUND: Righthander Donne Wall was named the PCL Most Valuable Player after winning the "Triple Crown" of pitching, posting league-bests with 17 wins, a 3.30 ERA and 119 strikeouts. He also paced league hurlers with 177.1 innings pitched. Lefthander Billy Wagner began the season at Double A Jackson before being promoted in June. After going 1-2 with an 8.10 ERA in his first three starts, the hard-throwing lefthander went 3-1 with a 1.59 ERA and 39 strikeouts in 28.1 innings over his last five July starts, meriting a late-season promotion to Houston. Veteran righthander Craig McMurtry, who also spent the latter portion of the season with the Astros, won six-of-seven decisions and allowed more than two earned runs in just one of 13 Triple A starts. Reliever Mark Small shrugged off a slow start to lead the league with eight saves in July.

Texas League-AA

THE SEASON: Despite finishing with an overall mark of 62-73, the Generals benifited from several outstanding individual performances over both halves of the 1995 campaign. Leading the charge was Jackson's starting rotation, paced by Texas League All-Star Billy Wagner. The lefthander and his teammates combined for the league's third best ERA at 3.90 and tied for second with seven shutouts.

AT THE PLATE: Outfielder Melvin Mora led the Jackson offense, ranking fifth in the circuit with 139 hits to go along with his .298 batting average. Top prospect Richard Hidalgo, who did not turn 20 until July, was second on the club with 14 homers and knocked in 59 runs, three coming in his Double A debut on 4/6 at Arkansas. He also posted an eight-game hitting streak from 5/2-10, going 11x32 (.344) with three doubles. Infielder Russ Johnson, the Astros compensation pick after the first round of the '94 draft, saw his first professional action and hit safely in 10 consecutive contests from 5/3-14, batting .375 (15x40) during the stretch. Outfielder Ray Montgomery, who split the season between Jackson and Tucson, hit seven homers between 5/20-31 and 10 in just 35 games at Double A before being promoted. Montgomery's combined totals included a .301 batting average (126x418), 21 homers and 92 RBI in 123 games. Second baseman Kary Bridges hit safely in 13 straight from 7/7-21, and Melvin Mora pieced together a 15-game streak from 8/14-29. Catcher Raul Chavez, who also split time between Double and Triple A, was named to the Texas League mid-season All-Star team after hitting .287 in 58 games.

ON THE MOUND: Despite pitching in just 12 games, Wagner's 2.57 ERA and 77 strikeouts in 70.0 innings earned the lefty All-Star recognition before promotions to Tucson and Houston late in the season. Righthander Tyrone Narcisse, who led the staff with 163.2 innings pitched, finished third in the Texas league with a 3.24 ERA, and 22 year-old Ryan Creek finished third in the league with 120 strikeouts. Righthander Doug Mlicki enjoyed his second consecutive quality campaign at Double A, going 8-3 with a 2.79 ERA before being promoted to Tucson, while Mike Grzanich gained his first experience in short relief, posting a 2.74 ERA and eight saves in 50 games.

While Houston pitchers have tied for the most no-hitters in baseball in their 34-year history, Astros batters have been among the toughest to shut down. Houston has been no-hit only twice in its history and has not been held hitless since April 30, 1969, when Jim Maloney of Cincinnati did it (4,064 games entering 1996). Only the Cubs have gone longer without being no-hit (September 9, 1965 by Sandy Koufax), a span of 4,280 games.

AUBURN

New York-Penn League–Short Season A

THE SEASON: The Astros posted the New-York Penn League's fifth best record out of 14 teams but fell short in their bid for a playoff berth. The club's success was based on a league-best .267 team batting average to go along with 383 runs scored, second-most in the circuit and an average of 5.2 per game. Despite some solid individual statistics, the Astros pitching staff struggled to a composite 4.50 ERA, third-highest in the league.

AT THE PLATE: Catcher Ramon Castro, one of two 1994 first-round draft choices, finished third in the New York-Penn League with nine homers and was fourth with 49 RBI and a .496 slugging mark. Castro's .299 batting average was second on the team, and he hit .346 with five homers and 19 RBI over his final 12 games. Third baseman Andy Bovender hit .429 (21x48) in his first 13 games and led the team with an overall .313 average, and 1995 third-round pick Chad Alexander (from Texas A&M) topped the Astros with 78 hits. Alexander also put together one of the Astros top individual game performances, knocking in six runs with a homer and a triple in a 9-6 win over Batavia on 7/29. Outfielder Wesley Pratt hit safely in 18 straight games from 6/28-7/19, raising his average from .224 to .314, and Bovender chipped in with an 11-game streak from 7/8-19. Shortstop Oscar Robles, Castro and Alexander were all named to the All-Star team.

ON THE MOUND: Righthander Jason Green anchored the Astros starting staff, totaling the league's fourth-highest win total with eight. Included among the wins was a one-hit shutout versus Williamsport on 7/25, a 2-0 win. Brian Sikorski was sixth among relievers with 12 saves and fanned 35 batters in 34.1 innings. Righthander Stephen Fuller won his first five decisions from 6/22-7/15 on his way to a 6-5 overall mark. Derek Root, a converted infielder, allowed just 28 hits in 38.1 innings while striking out 37. Niuman Loiz, who appeared in just three games for Auburn, threw a one-hit shutout on 8/22 against St. Catharines, picking up a 9-0 triumph.

GULF COAST

Gulf Coast League–Rookie

THE SEASON: The Astros had their shot at a post-season berth wiped out by rain with several washouts over the final week eliminating the opportunity to close the 1.5 game distance from first place. The club won seven of its final 10 games to pick up three games on the division lead but were unable to catch the Tigers, who won the division with a 33-24 mark. The season was marked by streaks, with the Astros winning 12-of-15 to begin July and losing nine straight in late July and early August.

SPRING TRAINING

SPRING TRAINING INFORMATION

Osceola County Stadium
1000 Bill Beck Boulevard
Kissimmee, Florida 34744
(407) 933-6500

Osceola County Stadium has been the spring home of the Astros since it opened in 1985.

ASTROS SET FOR 12TH KISSIMMEE SPRING

The Astros return to Kissimmee in 1996 to begin the 12th Grapefruit League season at their Osceola County Stadium Complex.

The Astros moved to their state-of-the-art facility in 1985 after spending the previous 21 years in Cocoa, FL. When it opened, the complex was hailed as the best of its kind in Florida, and its unique "cloverleaf" design has served as host to many local civic events.

The playing field at Osceola County Stadium, was recognized by Sports Turf Magazine and the Beam Clay Company as its Baseball Field of the Year for 1990-91. Recent improvements to the stadium and surrounding grounds have included renovation of press, ticket office and concessions areas and padding for the outfield fences.

The Astros opened their facility on March 3, 1985 when a record crowd of 7,210 saw the Astros defeat the Yankees. The Astros surpassed the 500,000 mark in total attendance at Osceola in 1993.

Houston first conducted spring training in Apache Junction, AZ in 1962 and 1963 before moving to Cocoa in 1964.
